

Books or TV

Reading books is better than watching TV.

What do you think about this idea? Write to convince a reader of your opinions.

Think about:

- if you agree or disagree or see both sides of the argument.
- an introduction – a way to introduce your ideas by clearly saying what you think about the topic.
- your opinions – with reasons or evidence that explain them.
- a conclusion – a summary of the main points of your argument.

Remember to:

- plan your argument before you start.
- write in sentences.
- pay attention to your spelling and punctuation.
- choose your words carefully to convince a reader of your opinions.
- use a new paragraph for each new idea.
- check and edit your writing so that it is clear for a reader.
