Books or TV

Reading books is better than watching TV.

What do you think about this idea? Write to convince a reader of your opinions.

Think about:

• an introduction – a way to introduce your ideas by clearly saying what you think about the topic.
• your opinions – with reasons or evidence that explain them.
• a conclusion – a summary of the main points of your argument.

Remember to:
• plan your argument before your start.
• write in sentences.
• pay attention to your spelling and punctuation.
• choose your words carefully to convince a reader of your opinions.
• use a new paragraph for each new idea.
• check and edit your writing so that it is clear for a reader.
